

Become a Pet First Aid Instructor

- Increase Your Income
- Train Your Staff
- Offer New Services to Your Clients
- Start a New Career Path

This course is for anyone who wants to learn the business of becoming an Emergency Pet First Aid and Animal Disaster Response Instructor. Upon completion of this course, you will be qualified to design presentations of various lengths and subjects and to teach Pet First Aid and Disaster Response to your clients, your staff, and the public.

In addition to the ins and outs of becoming an instructor, you will learn strategies for scheduling and filling classes, discuss setting policies and pricing and receive a list of suppliers that you can use to get the best deals on training aids.

Teaching or training experience is not required. You will receive all of the support that you need to become successful in this project.

Instructor: Sonya Wilson

Class fee: $650.00

Date/Time: Sunday, November 20th (Austin TX)

All day course (class begins at 9 am)

Location: Southpaws Playschool (Austin TX)

Website: <http://fourleggedfirstaid.com>

Email: fourleggedfirstaid@gmail.com

Phone: 512-440-7529

Sonya Wilson has over 30 years of experience in training both humans and dogs. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Texas A&M University and holds a lifetime Texas teaching certificate. Ms. Wilson is a member of the International Boarding and Pet Services Association. She is a certified professional animal care provider (CPACP) through PACCC, holds a silver certification through Low Stress Handling and is a certified Fear Free professional.